INJURED HUSBAND DISREGARD THREAT AGAINST HIS LIFE

Causes Arrest of Man Who Stole His Wife

ACCUSED NOW FACES LONG TERM IN PRISON

Couple Held for Hearing-"White Slave" Law to Be Invoked Against Man

Floreno Bosco, 22 years old, a neatby dressed and pretty matron, was arraigned in the city court this morning sie Ghuiro, a sister of the murdered man, and John Malroano, offered a greatly different version from that previously given to Captain Arnold Detective Frank Virelli. The cases

That Bruno, alias Esposito faces a long prison term, evan though con-viction here should fall became known today when it was learned that the authorities here already have bench warrants from the supreme court of Essex County, N. J., asking his re-turn to that state where he is now a fugitive from justice awaiting sent ence. It is also stated that paper will reach this city soon from Yonk era, N. Y., where he is charged with in his possession two full oaded .38 calibre revolvers.

The crime for which he is arrested in this state carried a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment for not more than 15 years or both, and as it is not known that two companions in the New Jersey crimes were sentenced to 10 years imprisonment each, it is believed that the present arrest mean many years in prison for the

When arraigned in court this morn-ing the woman was technically charg-ed with infidelity. Bonds for $2,000 were fixed and she was remanded to a cell where she later cursed the husband whom she left and hoped he might meet a sudden end.

Bruno was charged with having wiolated chapter 102 of the laws of 1911, which relates to white slavery and the carrying of a woman from and held in $5,000 bonds.
